302 Depositor Application

302.01 Application Process

(1) An applicant must file a depositor application in the form prescribed by TSD, together with the following documents and evidence:

(1.1) the applicant's affidavit certifying its formation, issued by the responsible government agency, which is no more than three (3) months ago from the date of such affidavit;

(1.2) a copy of the applicant's business license (if applicable); and

(1.3) other evidence as specified by TSD.

(2) If TSD is of the view that the applicant is fully qualified, TSD shall notify the applicant of the result of its consideration, wherein TSD may also prescribe any conditions for the applicant to comply with before the approval of it as a depositor.

(3) When the applicant has fully complied with the conditions under Regulation 302.01(2), TSD will designate, and notify the applicant of, the commencement date of its being a depositor.

TSD's consideration of the admission of membership is final.

*303 Rights and Duties of Depositor

303.01 Rights of Depositor

(1) to open a securities depository account for depositors or depositor's customers through the system connected to TSD System;

(2) to use the services of depositing, withdrawing or transferring securities, or any other services provided by TSD. TSD may provide different services to depositors according to the type of securities depository account.

303.02 Duties of Depositor

(1) to comply with the law on securities and exchange, the requirements of the SEC and the Capital Market Supervisory Board, the regulations, circular letters or orders of TSD, and to consent to TSD's punishment in the case of the depositor's violation or non-compliance; the depositor has the duty to cause its customer to acknowledge and consent to comply with the rules related to the customers;

(2) to render cooperation in the performance of duties by TSD's staff or officers, or any persons designated by TSD, or its Disciplinary Sub-committee or Appeal Sub-committee;

(3) on every business day, to check the accuracy of the information on the balance of securities and the conduct of transactions by the depositor or its customers in the report delivered by TSD to the depositor; if the depositor finds that the information on the balance of securities and the conduct of transactions by the depositor or its customers is inaccurate or not in accordance with the information in TSD's report, the depositor shall notify the TSD of the matter within the next business day of the date the depositor is aware of such inaccuracy;

(4) to submit any information as requested by TSD, wherein such information must be accurate, complete and up-to-date in accordance with the rules and conditions as prescribe by TSD; if the depositor finds that any information submitted by it is inaccurate, incomplete, or not up-to-date, the depositor must amend the information to ensure that it is accurate, complete, and up-to-date, and must immediately notify TSD of such amendment together with the reasons therefor;

(5) to render cooperation and allow TSD or its designated persons to conduct inspection of the depositor, including its computer system and computer hardware;

(6) to pay fees, fines, or other expenses as prescribed by TSD;

(7) to consent to TSD's disclosure or exchange of information of the depositors or their customers which is recorded in the depository system and/or through the system connected to TSD System, and the information relating to the violation of or non-compliance with the regulations, circular letters or orders of TSD, including the decision on punishment of the depositors, to the government or other agencies for regulatory purposes of the Office of the SEC, the Bank of Thailand, SET, TFEX, and TCH, or disclosures in accordance with the law;

(8) in the case that the depositors have the duty to disclose information of the depositors or their customers to the government or other agencies for regulatory purposes or disclosures in accordance with the law, and TSD has disclosed the information of the depositors or their customers, it shall be deemed that the depositors have performed their disclosure duty.

303.03 Availability of System Connected to TSD

The depositor must have a computer system and computer devices that is compatible with and connectable to TSD's depository system. Such system may be procured by the depositor or TSD in accordance with the rules and procedures as prescribed by TSD.

303.04 Opening Securities Account

When TSD has given approval to the applicant to be a depositor, the depositor may open with TSD a securities account for depositing, withdrawing or transferring securities, and may apply to open additional securities accounts in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed by TSD.

303.05 Preparation of Record of the List of Securities Owners

The depositor who has opened a securities account, must accurately and completely prepare the list of the owners of securities deposited with TSD, which must at least contain the following particulars in relation to the securities owners:

- (1) name and surname;
- (2) address;
- (3) occupation and nationality;

- (4) name of securities;
- (5) number of securities;
- (6) identification card number where the securities owner is a natural person with Thai nationality, or passport number or foreign identification card number where the securities owner is a natural person who is non-Thai nationality;
- (7) juristic person registration number in case the securities owner is a juristic person;
- (8) information on a bank account for receiving benefits (where it is prescribed by the registrar of the securities issuer); and
- (9) any other particulars as prescribed by TSD.

The depositor shall maintain and record the accurate, complete and up-to-date list of securities owners for the inspection of TSD at all times. TSD may request the depositor to present or deliver such list in accordance with the rules, conditions, and within the time period as prescribed by TSD.

303.06 Preparation of the List of Securities Owners

(1) **On the date of the closure of the register of the issuer of securities, the maturity date of redemption or reselling of securities or the due date of granting of any other rights to securities holders, the depositor must deliver the list of securities owners on the day immediately preceding the first date of the closure of the register or the day immediately preceding the maturity date of redemption or reselling of securities or the due date of granting of any other rights, as the case may be, to TSD, through the depository system and/or the system connected to TSD and within the period prescribed by TSD, so that TSD can compile and deliver the same to the registrar of the issuer of such securities.

In this regard, if the depositor records the list of securities owners through the depository system and/or the system connected to TSD instead of delivering the list of securities owners, it shall be deemed that the depositor has delivered the list of securities owners in accordance with paragraph one.

The list of securities owners under paragraph one must contain the names of securities owners who are classified in accordance with the accounts which the depositor opened for itself and for its customers and must contain the names of the persons who have Thai nationality as securities owners, except for the securities which are recorded by specifying the name of the securities and the mark under the methods prescribed by TSD, the list must contain the names of non-Thai persons as securities owners.

The provision of paragraph three shall not be applied to the list of the persons who are owners of securities without restriction under the law concerning the securities holding of non-Thai persons and the list of persons who are owners of securities issued by a registered company which is a juristic person registered under a foreign law.

Where the list of securities owners, submitted/recorded in the depository system and/or through the system connected to TSD System by the depositor to TSD, does not contain complete or accurate information in accordance with these regulations, TSD has the right not to accept such list, in whole or in part, or not to submit such list to the registrar of the securities issuer. In case of any damage incurred to TSD or securities owners due to such reason, the depositor must be responsible for such damage incurred.

(2) TSD may consider imposing a fine on the depositor at the rate prescribed by TSD if the depositor fails to submit the list of securities owners within the period prescribed by TSD under Regulation 303.06(1).

Upon the expiry of the period under paragraph one, TSD may consider extending the period for the depositor to submit/record the list of securities owners to TSD. If the depositor fails to submit/record the list of securities owners to TSD within the extended period, TSD may not accept such list, in whole or in part, or may not deliver such list to the registrar of the securities issuer, and the depositor must be responsible for the damage arising from such failure.

(3) Where the list of securities owners, submitted/recorded by the depositor under Regulation 303.06(1), does not contain complete or accurate information in accordance with these regulations, the depositor may request to amend such information to ensure it is correct and complete as deemed expedient by TSD, and TSD may consider imposing a fine on the depositor at the rate prescribed by TSD.

In case damage is incurred to TSD or securities owners because the information in the list of securities owners, submitted/recorded by the depositor, is incomplete or inaccurate, the depositor must be responsible for such damage.

*(*Amended August 21, 2015, Force on August 24, 2015)*

*(**Amended August 25, 2017, Force on September 11, 2017)*

*304 Designation of Any Person to Perform Duties

*(1) The depositor must obtain prior approval from TSD if it will designate any person to be its agent in performing duties which the depositor must perform towards TSD, either in whole or in part, in accordance with the rules prescribed by TSD, such as depositing, withdrawing, transferring, or cancelling the transfer of securities, collecting of securities certificates, or submission of the list of securities owners.

The appointment, change, or cancellation of the agent of the depositor, shall be made in accordance with the rules prescribed by TSD.

(2) The depositor under Regulation 301 (8) must designate TSD to be its agent in performing the duties which the depositor has towards TSD.

*(*Amended August 21, 2015, Force on August 24, 2015)*

305 Punishment and Termination as Depositor

305.01 Penalties

If any depositor is in violation of or participates in non-compliance with the law on securities and exchange, or the regulations, circular letters or orders of TSD, TSD may impose any of the following single or combined penalties against it:

- (1) warning;
- (2) probation;
- (3) fine;
- (4) limitation of the scope of its use of TSD's services;
- (5) temporary suspension of the provision of TSD's services;
- (6) termination of being a depositor; and
- (7) any acts as TSD deems appropriate.

305.02 Termination as a Depositor

- (1) Upon request of the depositor

The termination of being a depositor as requested by the depositor shall comply with the following rules and procedures:

(1.1) the depositor shall notify TSD of the termination as a depositor in advance no less than the period prescribed by TSD prior to the date it wishes to terminate its status as a depositor;

(1.2) the depositor shall withdraw or transfer securities from all of its securities accounts; and

(1.3) when the depositor has complied with (1.1) and (1.2), TSD will inform the depositor of the termination and close all securities accounts of such depositor.

(2) TSD issues an order when there is an event which may cause the depositor to no longer be a depositor, or TSD has an order to close all securities accounts.

The termination as a depositor by the order of TSD when there is an event which may cause the depositor to no longer be a depositor, or by TSD's order to close all securities accounts shall comply with the following rules and procedures:

*(2.1) The depositor submits/records the list of securities owners to TSD in accordance with the methods and within the period prescribed by TSD, so that TSD can compile and submit the same to the registrar of the securities issuer for use in support of the application for securities certificates, except in the case that the securities issuer has conditions for issuing securities certificates, wherein the depositor must contact the securities issuer to further undertake any act in relation to such securities.

If the list of securities owners under paragraph one does not contain complete or accurate information as prescribed by TSD, thereby causing damage to TSD or the securities owners, the depositor shall be responsible for the damage incurred.

(2.2) In requesting securities certificates, the depositor must submit the receipt to TSD. A request for securities certificates shall be made within the period prescribed by TSD. If the depositor fail to collect the same within such period, TSD may charge a fee for keeping securities certificates as prescribed by TSD.

The person whose status as a depositor is terminated shall remain obliged to make full payment of any fees or expenses owed to TSD.

*(*Amended August 21, 2015, Force on August 24, 2015)*

305.03 Events that may Cause a Depositor to be Terminated as Being a Depositor

TSD may issue an order to terminate the status of the depositor due to any of the following events:

- (1) the depositor is not qualified as a person permitted to be a depositor;
- (2) the depositor fails to pay any fees or expenses to TSD for two consecutive periods;
- (3) the depositor is unable to operate its business as it was ordered to suspend business operation or is under receivership or is bankrupt or by other similar reasons; and
- (4) the depositor is under liquidation for dissolution.

The depositor's status is terminated from the date prescribed by TSD.

306 Fees

The depositor has the duty to pay fees, fines, and expenses in relation to the provision of services of TSD in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed by TSD.
